

Tadd Van-de-mark and Chris Joseph winners of Round One of the West Coast Pro Redfish Series. Their catch totalled 14.78 pounds. (Photo by John Radkins)

At 5:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 13th, the fisherman started to gather at Indian Mounds Park on Lemon Bay for Round One of the Westcoast Pro Redfish Series and before 3 p.m. they brought their catch to Buchan's Landing Resort for weighing and measuring.

This tournament series is a non-profit organization promoting fun, competitive redfish tournaments. It is a true 100% Cash Payback series, and is run by volunteers and tournament anglers.

Click Here to Read More about the 1st Round of the Series in The Englewood Edge

